

Concurrent Session

Friday March 3, 2017 - 10:45 AM - 11:45AM
Convention Center, Room 211

Leveraging the Every Student Succeeds Act to Provide Integrated Student Supports

ESSA recognizes what superintendents and educators have long argued: low-income children need interventions that go beyond academics to succeed in school and in life. Integrated student supports (ISS), a student-focused approach that removes the learning barriers created by poverty, can be used to support low-performing schools. AASA and Communities In Schools, the largest ISS provider in the country, invite you to join a discussion about the ways in which superintendents can leverage ESSA to provide ISS.

Presenters:

Dr. Meria Carstarphen, Superintendent, Atlanta Public Schools
Atlanta, GA

Dr. Dan Domenech, Executive Director of AASA and Board Member of Communities In Schools, Inc.
Alexandria, VA

Dr. Dale Erquiaga, CEO, Communities In Schools, Inc.
Arlington, VA

Come Join the Conversation!

Concurrent Session

Thursday March 2, 2017; 2:45PM to 3:45PM
Convention Center, Room 211

Feeding Hungry Minds: Funding Your School Breakfast Program

AASA currently supports alternative breakfast programs in 22 school districts that impact achievement, behavior, tardiness, and attendance. Hear from superintendents in urban, suburban, and rural districts on their successes. Go home with strategies, tools, and an application that can help your district receive upwards of $100,000 in sustainable infrastructure support to improve student health, academic performance, and other indicators.

Presenters:

Roberto Padilla, Superintendent, Newburgh Enlarged City School District (NY)

Carrie Brock, Superintendent, Williamsburg County School District (SC)

Rodney Watson, Superintendent, Spring Independent School District (TX)

Moderator of the Session

Sharon Adams-Taylor, Associate Executive Director, AASA, The School Superintendent Association; Alexandria, VA

Register for AASA National Conference - <http://nce.aasa.org/>
March 2-4, 2017 in New Orleans