

ADD YOUR VOICE AND KNOW YOU HAVE INFLUENCE

Because you're an AASA member, your interests are represented on the Hill and in the halls of government across the nation. You have something to say; USE YOUR MEMBERSHIP TO GET INVOLVED.

Superintendents in South Carolina, just like any other state, need a voice – a voice that is heard throughout the country. AASA, The School Superintendents Association, serves as a vehicle for us to have a voice in public education. This is meaningful when you consider the challenges we face every single day. AASA provides tools for us to be successful and thrive on the job. Through the organization's advocacy and outreach programs, AASA enables superintendents like me to be directly involved in legislation that affects our schools and, more importantly, our students.
