The Berkeley County Board of Education is seeking an outstanding educational leader to serve as superintendent of its countywide school system of more than 33,000 students. Berkeley County is just north of and adjacent to historic Charleston, SC. The district is located in the popular South Carolina low country very near the Atlantic coast. It is one of the largest districts in the state and has experienced excellent community support for its schools that has resulted in the modernization of existing schools and the construction of new ones to meet growth demands.

A candidate must be eligible for certification as a superintendent in South Carolina. The Board expects to offer an initial multi-year contract with a negotiable salary of approximately $210,000 depending on qualifications and experience plus a competitive benefit package. The new superintendent will officially assume this position at a mutually agreeable time to the candidate and the Board, but no later than July 1, 2015.

Details of application procedures and specifics about job requirements can be found on the BWP & Associates website at www.bwpassociates.com. The application deadline for this position is April 3, 2015. Individuals who wish to be considered for this position will complete an online BWP Applicant Data Form. An application file must include a letter of interest indicating reasons for interest in the position, a current resume', and three letters of reference. Candidates must send these materials electronically with the online Applicant Data Form. Official transcripts will be required from candidates who are invited to interview with the school board.

BWP Search Team contacts:
Dr. Bill Symons (843-368-4312)
Mary Ann Blaskowitz (803-243-9089)
Dr. Odell Stuckey (803-360-0929)
Dr. Anne Noland (630-624-3336)

For more information:
www.bwpassociates.com
www.berkeley.k12.sc.us

Berkeley County School District is an equal opportunity employer.