

JANUARY EDITORIAL: Early Childhood Education

The January issue of School Administrator provides readers with highly relevant articles on leadership to address the new normal.

Advertise in the publication that superintendents look to for wisdom, practical advice and insight.

Facetime you gain with 20,000 superintendents and district-level leaders when you advertise monthly.

 89% of School Administrator readers are involved in district purchases*

 92% of school district decisions/purchases take place in district offices, led by superintendents*

Email Kathy Sveen. Ask about our opportunities. I can help! Magazine, Website, video, and banner ads, E-Blast, E-Newsletter, sponsored content & cover pages and much more!

Ad Deadline: Nov.6

Thought Leadership Series: Q&A on Change Management with John Kotter with Larry Nyland, retired superintendent, Seattle, Wash. Kotter is regarded by many as the expert on leadership.

Brain-Compatible Instruction to Engage Young Learners in Remote Learning/An instructional consultant explores practices that stimulate the interest and brains of preschoolers.

What K-12 Can Learn From Preschool About Family Engagement/The director of Head Start informs readers offers advice on improving family engagement based on her experiences with districts nationwide.

Superintendents' Role in Leading Early Childhood Education --PK-3/An assistant superintendent in Yakima, Wash., and co-chair of AASA Early Childhood Cohort, explores how three districts have improved their early childhood programs.

Trauma-Sensitive Approach to Prekindergarten During COVID/A principal and trauma expert weigh in.

Let the Children Play; How More Play Will Save Our Schools and Help Children Thrive/A Finnish educator who has studied education systems around the world advocates for increasing recess in America's schools.

Contact Kathy Sveen TODAY at ksveen@smithbucklin.com. She can create a program to stretch your budget and meet your specific needs.

School Administrator magazine is published by AASA, The School Superintendents Association.